About Seattle Turkey Trot

The Seattle Turkey Trot was created in 2007 by 3 Seattle Ballardites who wanted to run on Thanksgiving morning in an attempt to counteract the large quantities of food that would be consumed later in the day.

A scenic course was chosen, friends and family were invited to join, and 30 people showed up to run that inaugural year.

The next year, 200 people showed up, and the extra money raised was donated to the Ballard Food Bank. Since then, the Ballard Food Bank has been instrumental in organizing and handling the yearly run, and all proceeds raised go directly to the Food Bank to help provide food and hope to our neighbors.

Ballard Food Bank is a non-profit organization serving neighbors in northwest Seattle. Our mission is to bring food and hope to our neighbors...because there can be enough for everyone.

To achieve our mission, we provide access to nutritious foods and services that support self-sufficiency through our food bank and community resource hub, where we offer home delivery, weekend food for kids program, and emergency financial assistance.

"Start your Turkey Day off with some energy burnin' fun at the 9th Annual Seattle Turkey Trot benefiting the Ballard Food Bank."
Red Tricycle, naming Seattle Turkey Trot one of the 9 best Holiday Fun Runs (2015)

Sponsor The 15th Annual Seattle Turkey Trot

Now in its 15th year, the Seattle Turkey Trot is one of Seattle's premier 5K family friendly walk-run-trot events. In 2019, the Seattle Turkey Trot drew 4,700 participants, with 100 volunteers, and raised nearly $200,000 for Ballard Food Bank. Voted by Red Tricycle as one of the 9 best Holiday Fun Runs, the Seattle Turkey Trot is the perfect way for family and neighbors to kick off their Thanksgiving day. All proceeds from the Seattle Turkey Trot directly benefit Ballard Food Bank.

Join Ballard Food Bank for the 14th Annual Seattle Turkey Trot—our biggest fundraiser of the year—and support essential programs for our community including:

- Drive-Thru Food Bank: Offered four days a week in the Ballard Food Bank parking lot. We're feeding nearly double the number of people we were before Covid-19.
- Expanded Home Delivery Program: We recognize that some people can't access our drive-thru option. We have expanded home delivery during this time and bring bags of food to our neighbors at home.
- Community Resource Hub: We offer emergency financial assistance for rent and utilities, mail service, and space for our community partners to work with clients on-site.
